HISTORY OF PERRYSBURG

BEFORE the coming of the white man, the Maumee Valley, due to poor drainage, was a low, marshy region, known as the Black Swamp. It was a route of travel frequented by the Delawares, Miamis and other Indians on their trips to the Southern hunting grounds.

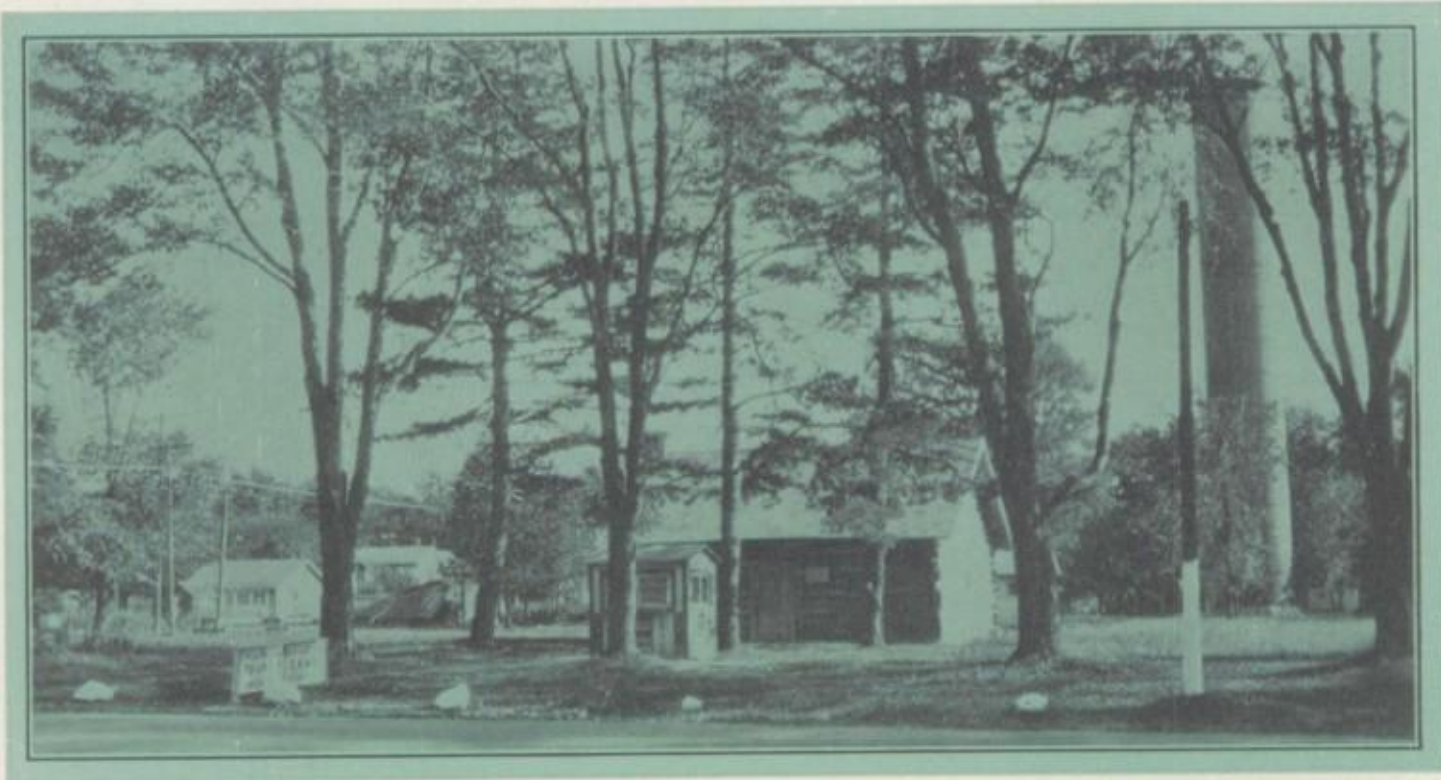

This region was first explored by the French. The famous LaSalle was one of its earliest explorers. One of the first settlements near here was a small stockade, built near the present site of Maumee, in 1680. This was important for several years as a trading post, but finally it was abandoned. The river banks were the scenes of battles between the English, French and Indians. Finally the English gained control of the region.

The Maumee Valley, as a part of the Northwest Territory, was under the rule of the commandant of the military post at Detroit.

When the Revolutionary War came, the Indians became hostile to the Americans because of the secret encouragement they received from the British. Long after the Revolution had formally ended, the British were agitating the Indians to trouble the Americans.

The Indians refused to let the Americans come north of the Ohio River, and it was to open this territory that Anthony Wayne came into Ohio.

In April 1794, Fort Miami was built by the British at the present site of Maumee. Wayne met the Indians and defeated them near Maumee in the Battle of Fallen Timbers. It was in this battle that Turkey Foot was mortally wounded. He was standing on Turkey Foot Rock, encouraging his people, when he was shot. Long afterwards the Indians would carve turkey's feet on the rock, in memory of the chief who died there. The British at Fort Miami would not support the Indians after their defeat, and Wayne followed the tribes, burning their villages. After this battle the Indians signed a Treaty of Peace with the United States.

Soon after 1807, settlers began to gather at the foot of the Rapids of the Maumee. By a Treaty with the Indians in 1808, a road was created, running from the settlement on the Maumee, to Lower Sandusky, or Fremont. In 1826 the road was completed.

With the coming of the War of 1812, Wm. Hull was placed in command of the Ohio forces. After his cowardly surrender at Detroit, William Henry Harrison was put in his place. The Indians were gathering on the north shore of the Maumee Bay in 1813 when Harrison wrote: "I am erecting here a pretty strong fort (Meigs), capable of resisting field artillery at least. The troops will be placed in a fortified camp covered on one flank by the fort. This is the best position that can be taken to cover the frontier, and the small posts in the rear of it, and those above it on the Maumee and its tributaries. The force placed here ought, however, to be strong enough to encounter any that the enemy may detach against the fort above."

About March 1, 1813, word came that General Proctor, aided by the Indians was to attack Fort Meigs. The British were to take the Miami side of the river, while the Indians were to attack from the Fort Meigs side. The attack began about May 1, while Proctor was rebuilding Fort Miami. Proctor's forces outnumbered Harrison's, and they had more ammunition. Word came to Harrison that General Clay was sending aid from Fort Defiance. Harrison gave directions as to the plan these forces were to take, but Col. Dudley, in command, after spiking the British guns, disregarded orders and pursued the Indians into an ambush prepared for him, where all but 170 of his 866 men perished.

After several days, the Indians deserted the British, and on May 9, Proctor gave up the siege and returned to Canada. In July, he again attacked Fort Meigs. Again a two days attempt to take the Fort by strategy, he gave it up.

In 1810, Amos Spafford was given a commission as deputy postmaster of Miami in Erie District. In 1816, the post office at Fort Meigs was the only one between the River Raisin and Fremont and between Maumee Bay and Chicago.

In 1816, the Federal Government sent Alexander Bourne to select a townsite at the foot of the Maumee Rapids. Deputy United States surveyors then laid out the town. Mayor Spafford named it Perrysburg at the suggestion of the following letter, written by Josiah Meigs: "As you will have a town on the Miami of the Erie, it will be well to think of the name it is to bear. The act does not give it a name. Who to christen it? I wish you would think on the subject, and let me have your wishes. For my part, I will barely suggest to you that, if it would be named Perryville, or Perrytown—or in some other form, which may always remind us of the victory of Erie—it would be a good policy.”

Although there had been a settlement here, the War of 1812 had destroyed it, leaving only charred cabins and the graves of those who had not fled. Soon large boats began to come, bringing passengers, salt, merchandise and lumber and taking back a store of furs, fish and corn. Homes, stores and sawmills appeared.

The town flourished in spite of its rivals, Orleans and Maumee. Maumee was then the county seat of Wood County. In 1822 the county seat was moved to Perrysburg, in spite of the protests of Perrysburg’s rivals.

In the years from 1828 to 1840, there was as much commercial business transacted at Perrysburg as at any other Lake Erie port, except Cleveland and Buffalo. The furs, meats and other raw materials of the surrounding regions of Indiana, Michigan and Ohio were forwarded from here, and in return, manufactured articles from the east were distributed from here.

“Spaffords Exchange,” established in 1822-23 by Samuel Spafford is important in the town’s history. The stories of its bell and its distinguished guests from time to time have contributed much to the traditions of Perrysburg.

Although Perrysburg was an important port, the building of ships drawing more water, and the failure of the Government to dredge the River up to Perrysburg caused its importance as a commercial center to decline.

In 1875, the county seat was moved from Perrysburg to Bowling Green. Although Perrysburg could not become a great commercial city, it became a beautiful village, enriched by historical associations, and a position on the bank of the beautiful Maumee River.

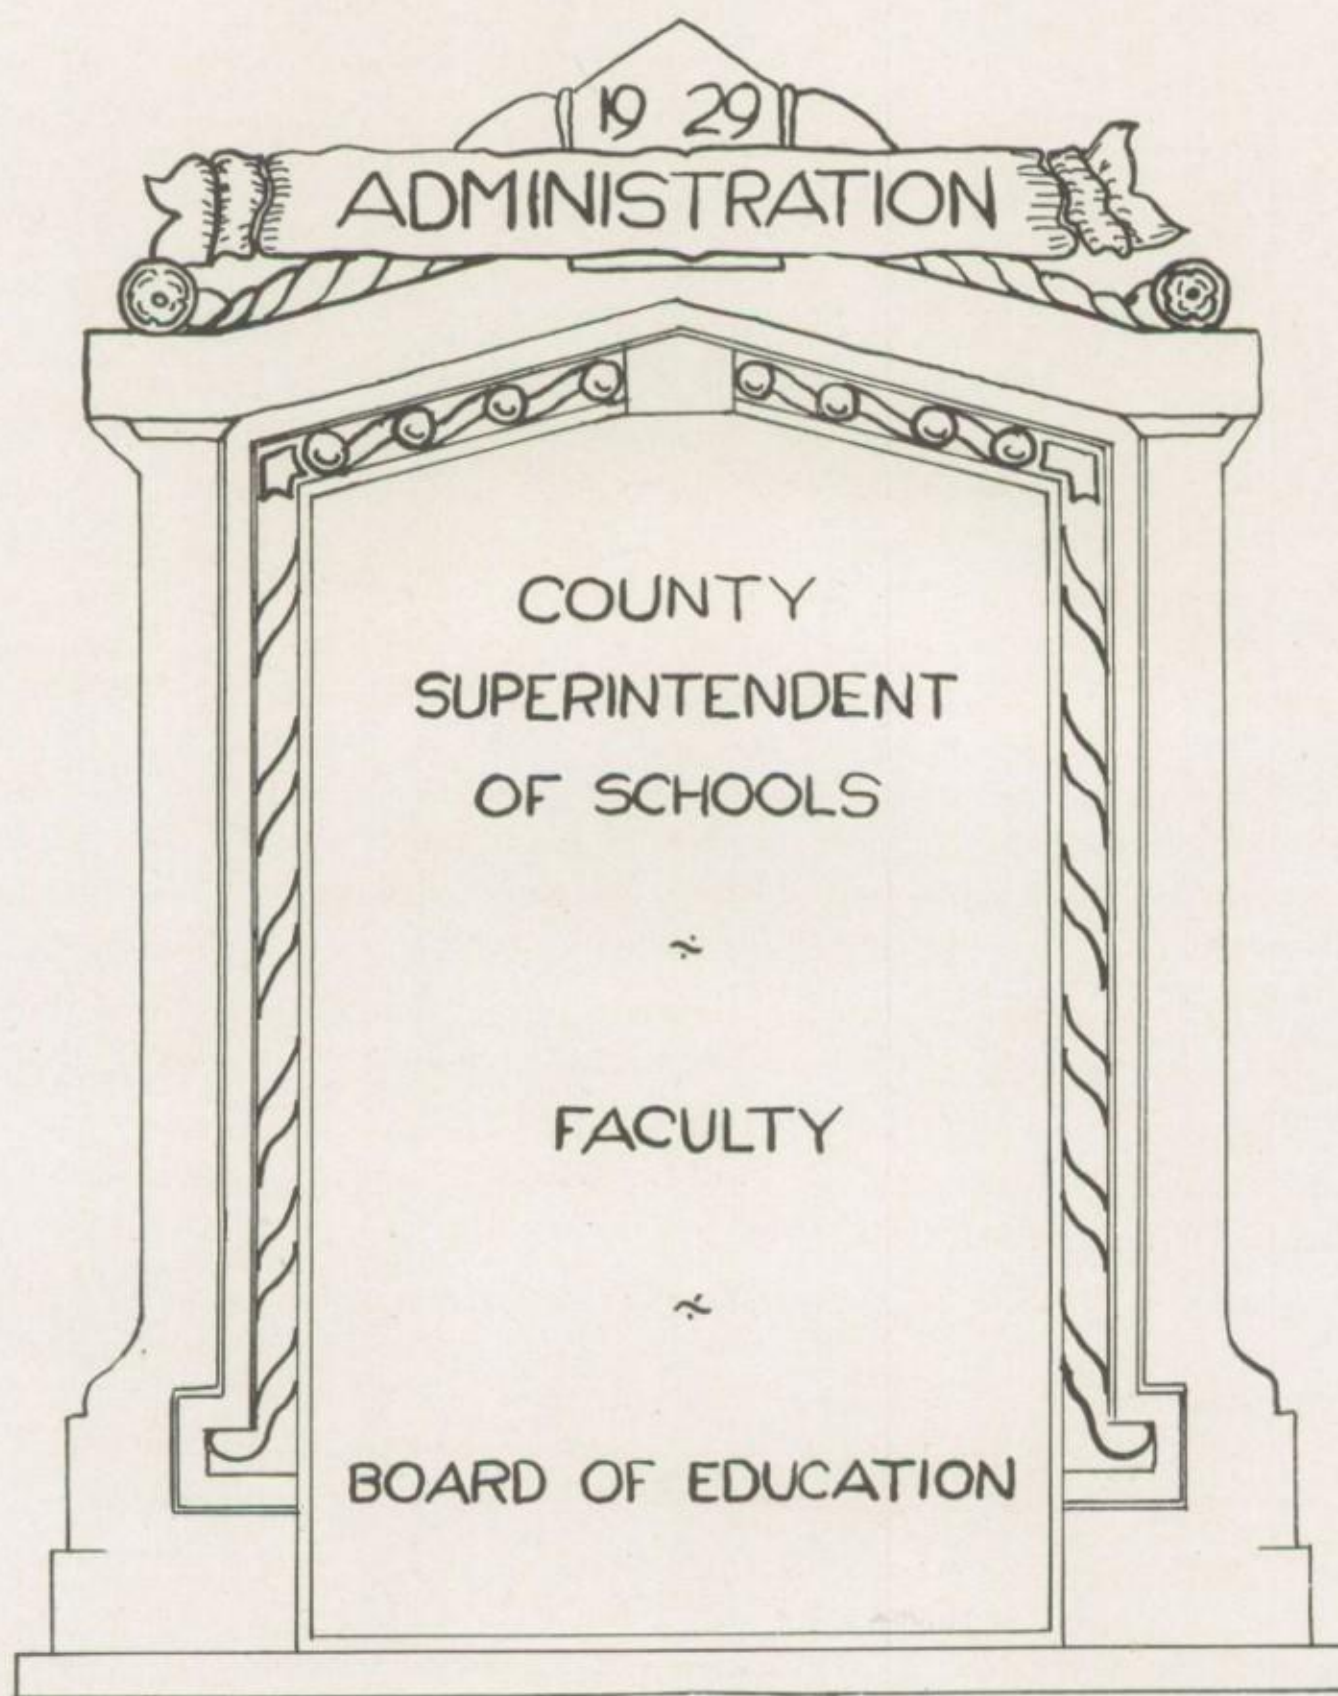

The first movement toward common school education in the Maumee Valley was a meeting held in the Presbyterian Church, at Perrysburg in 1837.

Perrysburg High School was founded by A. D. Wright, in 1849, with an attendance of 50. Since that time the School has increased to the number of 265 in the High School and 600 in the grades.

When Willard V. Way died in 1875, he left a sum of money to the School. The interest, amounting to $1200, is given every four years as a scholarship, to some student who is selected by a competitive examination. Mr. Way also left the sum of $15,000 for a public library, which was established in 1881, and of which the present building was dedicated in 1892.

Perrysburg High School is one of the outstanding schools of its size in this region. It belongs to the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and to the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools.

Perrysburg has unusual advantages for a town of its size, and the aim of the faculty and students of its school is to do their work as to merit these advantages and the reputation of being "one of the best."

CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER I.

Early in September, four years ago, about ninety lively little lads and lassies from various schools could be seen wandering about the halls of P. H. S. until they found themselves in what is called the main assembly.

After a few weeks of getting acquainted with our class mates, our schedules, and class rooms and becoming accustomed to the traditional pranks we felt that our high school wasn't so bad after all.

One day a meeting of the Freshman Class was called in the auditorium. We were told by our able sponsor, Mr. Scheld, that we were to organize our class. The following officers were elected:

President	NORMAN SWEET
Vice-President	NATCHER FRANCE
Secretary-Treasurer	HELEN DeVERNA
Reporter	GRACE SPRENG

The first year of the most joyful days of our life proved to be a very delightful one. We formed acquaintances with members of the other classes and became eager to participate in all school activities. We also proved that we weren't so green as we had been pictured, for fifteen per cent of the class were on the honor roll.

As the months rolled by with their proper amount of work and play, we were glad to find that our first year of High School was ended and we were no longer Freshies.

CHAPTER II.

The next fall we returned in a more serious and determined manner. We didn't forget, however, to give the Freshies the numerous little torments, that we had endured the previous year.

We found it our first duty to choose our class officers for our Sophomore year. The results were:

President	NATCHER FRANCE
Vice-President	WILLIAM HADNETT
Secretary	BERT ROBISON
Treasurer	JEROME HAAS
Reporter	EMIL HONNER

Our class membership was reduced to sixty-five, but we still had one of the largest classes in the school's record.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Sandles we had a successful year. We again took part in all the school activities and enjoyed ourselves at the Christmas party given by the Juniors.

We helped give the annual Senior Banquet and were glad when those glorious summer vacation days came again.

CHAPTER III.

We came back after vacation days having the honor of calling ourselves Juniors, but only forty-five of our former class answered the roll call.

By a streak of good luck we found that Miss Sandles was to be our sponsor again. Hurray.

After becoming accustomed with our new schedules, we held a class meeting and elected the following officers:

President	NATCHER FRANCE
Vice-President	ROZELLA SPOERL
Secretary-Treasurer	BERT ROBISON
Reporter	CHARLOTTE MENKE

This year the members took a greater interest than ever in activities. We were starting to be respected by all and had a very enjoyable year. We gave a Christmas party which was called a success. We again helped give the Senior Banquet.

As the year drew to a close two of our members, Elsie Metzger and Gordon Chappell were elected to the National Honor Society.

The death of Charles Kovach brought a sadness upon our class. He still lives in our memory.

When this year ended we felt different than at previous summer vacations. We hated to think that only one more year and then our high school days would be gone forever.

CHAPTER IV.

The first day of our Senior year had come. We found that we had forty-six members in our class.

To lead us through our final year we chose the following officers:

President	HELEN DeVERNA
Vice-President	NORMAN SWEET
Secretary	CHARLOTTE MENKE
Treasurer	GEORGE HAAS
Reporter	DORIS BURKHART

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Riggle our undertakings have been successful.

The Seniors agreed to do the customary thing by publishing the "Some-thin'." In October our class entertained the other classes with a party given at the Town Hall.

At the end of the first semester, Bernice Hower, Rozella Spoerl, George Haas, Charlotte Menke and Freida Anderegg were admitted to the National Honor Society.

A great many Seniors took part in the various athletic and literary activities throughout the year. We tried to bring honor to our alma mater.

We chose blue and silver as our class colors, Red and White roses for the Class flower and for our class motto, "Deeds, not dreams."

RENDEZVOUS
A PLAY IN ONE ACT

Time: A night in June, 1939.

Place: A large banquet hall in Chicago, which is wonderfully and beautifully decorated in blue and silver.

Red and white rose buds are at the plates for souvenirs of the meeting.

Characters: Members of 1929 Senior Class of Perrysburg High School.

Prologue: Given by the chairman.

We are again together as we were in the days of 1929. Many changes have taken place and we find one person missing in making this truly a reunion and that is Mr. Weinstock, our assembly teacher, but we shall endeavor to conduct ourselves as he would have us. We are met here tonight to learn of our old classmates, many of whom we have not seen and several from whom we have not heard for many years. Tonight we will ask each person to speak for himself and herself as the case may be. We will begin with our former president, Helen DeVerna. The rest will speak in order as they sat in Room 21.

Helen: As the first speaker of the evening I can truly say I am glad to be here with you and it does my heart good to see you all again, but as years have passed I have added a name to mine so I will let Norman speak for me.

Norman: I am at present playing in "Old Fashioned Anne" at St. Louis Paramount. Of course, playing opposite me is my wife, Helen who is now sitting at my right.

Hazel Trowbridge: After many years of study I have at last achieved my ambition of head dietician in the Brooklyn Naval Hospital.

Billy Hadnett: Since my departure from Perrysburg High School in 1929 I have worked my way up to a big "pool operator" in Wall Street.

Gertrude Laubenthal: I have a position as a dancer for the Ziegfield Follies in New York.

Herma Dorcas: After winning a medal for speed typing I am stenographer for Secretary of Navy since Hoover's re-election in 1933.

Freida Anderegg: I am teaching elocution in the Ann Arbor School of Expression.

Maxine La Faree: A few years ago I joined the Ringling Bros. Circus as Tom Thumb's wife. I find the work very unusual.

Flossie Charles: I am the President's Private Secretary. I have travelled with the family all over the U. S.

Joseph Protsik: I am a Congressman from Ohio, and am trying to bring farm relief to the people of my district.

Carl Peterson: I am heading an expedition to Mars by plane. We start July 2, 1939.

George Haas: I am enjoying life with Marjoria Scholl, who is now my wife. We have a filling station for aero-planes at the airport near Lima City, O.

Bernice Hower: I am now a Professor of Foreign Languages in New York. I have been preparing myself for the past seven years.

Charlotte Menke: I am a graduate nurse from St. Vincent's Hospital in Toledo. In my spare time I write for "The American Magazine."

Raymond Grimes: I am a movie actor. Some say I am a second Charlie Chaplin or Ben Turpin.

Elsie Metzger: Following my graduation from Ann Arbor, I was elected editor of "Scholastic" and still hold that position.

Bert Robison: I am now a full fledged prize fighter and hope to be worthy of my title of "The World's Champion Boxer."

Mercedes Bihn: I still sing "My Lovely Celia" over the Radio. These requests are usually from Perrysburg people. I broadcast over WSPD.

Grace Spreng: For the last several years I have been engaged with Keith's Circuit singing many of my own compositions.

Nat France: I am U. S. supervisor of Schools. You who have children in school have perhaps already noticed a change in the school system and you will see far greater changes in the years that are to come.

Marjoria Scholl: I'm happy—tho' married.

Harold Neiderhouse: I am a news paper reporter and will surely send a report of this reunion to the papers which I represent.

Maxine Gallant: I have been very successful as a bookkeeper for the well known horticulturist, Henry Richards.

Margaret Swartz: I am teaching Commercial Arts in Cleveland School at present.

Achsah Tippen: I studied law at Columbia, was admitted to the bar and am now filling the unexpired term of the late Florence B. Allen.

Martha Fahrer: During my Senior year I had some experience in the Beauty Shop. I am now the owner of a new Beauty Shop in Homeland Park.

Fancheon DeVerna: As a Senior I became interested in English and have continued my study of it. I now help my husband in his teaching.

Gordon Chappell: You can imagine my joy of this meeting after already hearing our engagement announcement. We will start our life's work as missionaries to China.

Arthur Williams: I am still blowing my clarinet and have been very successful. I have recently signed a contract to play in the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Rozella Spoerl: I am now the happy wife of Blinn Harvey. We find our work interesting and I can be a real help to him with his patients.

Cecelia Farley: I suppose some of you may have heard my organ recitals over WLW. I have been organist for that station since 1933.

Chairman: A telegram from Phil Sutter saying it would be impossible for him to attend on account of an unforeseen accident and says he is just a plain artist. Of course none of us believe that, for his ability in High School was such as to prove to us that he is an authority on all art work.

Charles Marshall, our Kentucky classmate: I am a professor at Harvard endeavoring to instruct the students in Physiology.

Roland Stalder: I am now proprietor of a wholesale Hardware store in Toledo in a store which stands where the old Bostwick-Braun Hardware stood in our school days.

Blinn Harvey: My story is short: I attended Ohio State University studying to be a Doctor. I graduated and at present am practicing in Detroit. While I was an interne I found Rozella Spcerl who had always wanted to marry a doctor—so will let her tell you about it.

Clamor Goeke: Maybe you have heard of my recent election to the Governorship of Ohio. That is my work.

Emil Honner: Very recently I was elected Editor of the Toledo Blade. I have always been interested in that line of work and will try to be as great as my predecessor.

Viola Schaller: I am Mr. Livingston's secretary and help the Seniors as they travel to Toledo to have their pictures taken.

Anna Doyle: I have been interested in flying ever since my Senior year and have at last fulfilled my ambition by becoming a full fledged aviatrix.

Edith Swartz: Since the Stalder Hardware was started I have been clerking in the paint department.

Gret Hoffman: After many years of study I am supervisor over all nurses at the Ford Hospital in Detroit.

Mary Mutchler: I am now manager of the Mary Lee Candy stores in Toledo and am making a success of it.

Doris Burkhardt: I am now the editor of the "Woman's Home Companion" and find this very interesting work.

Henry Richards: Since my High School career I have been very successful as a horticulturist in Toledo.

Chairman: We are glad to hear from all of you and now we will discontinue the meeting so friends may converse with friends and have a jolly time.

ORGANIZATIONS

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club reorganized this year under the supervision of Mrs. Welsh, the music instructor. This Club has had a very successful year and has accomplished much. At the first meeting of the year the following officers were elected.

President	JUNE SHEPHERD
Secretary	BERNICE HOWER
Treasurer	CHARLOTTE MENKE

Sixteen girls from the Glee Club were selected to sing in the County Chorus. The number which they sang was "The Old Refrain" by Fritz Kreisler. Several of the girls sang in the mixed chorus, the number being "Salutation."

The entire Glee Club gave a spring concert this year, which was one of the most successful ever given by the Girls' Glee Club.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club reorganized this year under the direction of Mrs. Welsh. The officers elected for the year were:

President	ROLAND STALDER
Secretary	GORDON CHAPPELL
Treasurer	NORMAN SWEET

The boys sang several times in chapel this year and some of them appeared on literary programs during the year. Although the Glee Club is small the work which has been done is of the highest quality.

The boys entered a chorus in the County Contest this year. They sang "Can't You Hear Me Callin' Caroline." Gordon Chappell and Patrick Dowling competed for the boys' solo. Patrick Dowling received the judges' decision. The number used was "Invictus" by Bruno Huhn.

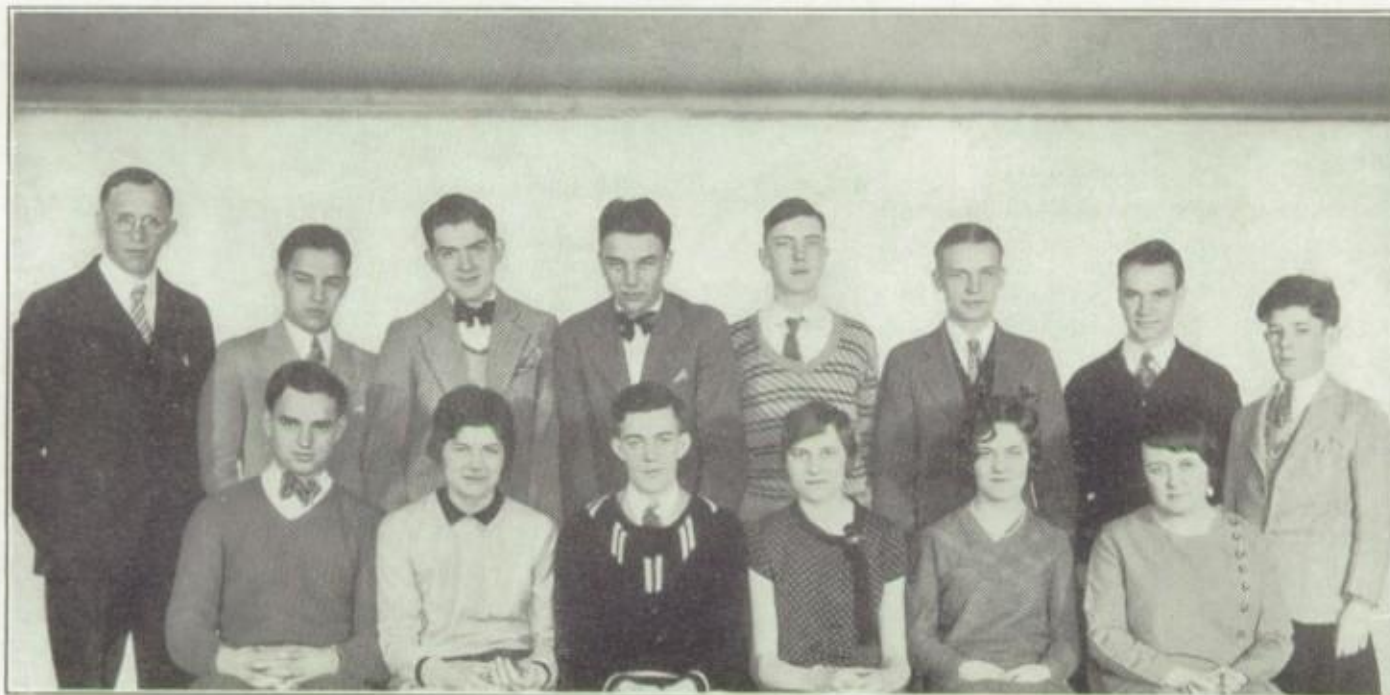

ORCHESTRA

At the beginning of this school term the Orchestra was reorganized. We lost several members in the last years' graduating class, but under Mrs. Welsh's supervision other capable members were selected to take their place. The Orchestra has done exceptional work throughout the year. We are very proud to have such an orchestra represent our school in the contests.

The following are those enrolled in the orchestra:

ATHENIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Athenians under the sponsorship of Mrs. Milburn and Mr. Huffman have given fine programs during the year. Many of the students showed that they had great literary talent. The Athenians and Phi Sigmas gave a joint program at Christmas. With the talent from both of the societies the program was exceptionally fine.

The officers were elected as follows:

President	ROLAND STALDER
Vice-President	CLAMOR GOEKE
Secretary	NATCHER FRANCE
Treasurer	PHIL SUTTER
Reporter	EMIL HONNER

Mrs. Welsh honored each society by allowing the Orchestra to play several selections at their programs.

As the time of the Annual Contest drew near a meeting was called for the officers to select their contestants. The following are those that were selected:

Oration	HELEN DeVERNA
Essay	CHARLOTTE MENKE
Reading	GRETCHEN HOFFMAN
Debate	NORMAN SWEET, GORDON CHAPPELL
Alternate	PAUL BADE

The Athenians feel that they are keeping up the "winning streak" started several years ago, as they won the most honors at the Phi Sigma-Athenian Contest. Keep it up, fellow Athenians, we're doing fine!

PHI SIGMA LITERARY SOCIETY

This year the literary societies followed the same plan as last year of having voluntary membership. The members who joined were pledged to take part in programs when asked.

Early in the year the Society met and elected the following officers to take charge of the affairs of the Society throughout the year:

President	GEORGE HAAS
Vice-President	ROZELLA SPOERL
Secretary	BERNICE HOWER
Treasurer	MARGARET SWARTZ
Fifth Member	DORIS ZINGG

The Phi Sigma gave the first program of the year which was planned and well given due to the splendid help administered by the sponsors, Miss Wiser and Mr. Barber. The Phi Sigmas wish to thank these sponsors for their splendid help and loyalty to the Society this year.

At Christmas the Phi Sigma and Athenian officers met and decided to give a joint Xmas program. This program was also very good and enjoyed by the High School.

The Phi Sigma Contestants selected for the Annual Phi Sigma-Athenian Contest were:

Oration	BERNICE HOWER
Reading	JUNE SHEPHERD
Essay	ELSIE METZGER
Debate	CHARLES MARSHALL HARRY FENNENBERG
Alternate	CYRIL MUNGER

We, the Phi Sigmas lost in the Contest the score being 3-2 in favor of our rivals, the Athenians. This fact however does not daunt us.

The Phi Sigmas feel that the path ahead of them is brighter than the path just traveled so watch them bring victory to our society in the coming years.

STATE SCHOLARSHIP CONTESTS

During the latter part of March and early April, the first annual state scholarship examinations were held. Examinations were given in twelve important high school subjects. The firsts of these tests were held March 23. On this date examinations were held in each county and the winners of first and second places in each subject entered the district contest the following Saturday. The winners in this contest went to Columbus on April sixth to compete in the state finals. The students competing for Perrysburg High School were:

The results of the county contest were as follows: American Literature—1st, Harry Fenneberg, 2nd Fern Schaller. English II—Cyril Munger. French I—1st Harry Fenneberg. Civics—1st Elsie Metzger. English Literature—1st Elsie Metzger.

Perrysburg High School had more students ranking first than any other school in the county.

One of the rules of the District Contest was that no student could compete in more than one subject.

Those competing in the district contest were: English Literature—Elsie Metzger, French I—Harry Fenneberg, Civics—Bernice Hower, English II—Cyril Munger, American Literature—Wilma Farris.

Elsie Metzger ranked third making her eligible to enter the state contest on April 6th held at Columbus. In this contest she ranked second in English Literature. We are very proud to have one of our students ranked among the highest in the state.

HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y Club is an international organization which has grown out of the Y. M. C. A. The Club is composed of young men of the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes of the High School. All members are elected according to ability, personality and habits

The purpose of this club is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character and leadership. The motto of the club is, "Clean speech, clean athletics, clean living and clean scholarship"

The officers of the Hi-Y for this year are:

President	CLAMOR GOEKE
Vice-President	NATCHER FRANCE
Secretary	NORMAN SWEET
Treasurer	PHILLIP SUTTER
Chaplain	ARTHUR WILLIAMS
Sergeant-at-Arms	HENRY RICHARDS

The club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Treece who is doing some very fine work with the boys this year.

"THE FULL HOUSE"

A farcical comedy in three acts by Fred Jackson was one of the two plays selected for the Senior Class this year.

It is a play of unlimited fun, written in a very attractive and lively manner.

When the curtain rises we are greeted by Parkes, the English servant, with his "grand" accent and English seriousness, and Susie, the maid, who is constantly talking of her beloved Sioux City, Iowa.

Then there is Ottily Howell, the bride, who is distracted because her husband (George Howell) is apparently a crook.

Mrs. Winniecker, her aunt, ever suspicious of George is nodding her head with an "I told you so" air.

We wonder whether circumstances ever will unravel so that Ned Pembroke can "square himself" with Daphne Charters (Ottily's sister).

It looks doubtful, particularly after the real crook (Nicholas King) has arrived on the scene.

We see the police sergeant (Dougherty) and the two policemen (Jim Mooney and Clancy) baffled by the mystery of the stolen necklace.

Mrs. Fleming, who owns the apartment where Ottily and George are living, arrives to this scene of confusion, positive she must have rented her home to a gang of crooks. Let us not forget Vera Vernan, that Boston show girl who makes trouble for Ned.

The last character we meet is Mrs. Pembroke (Ned's mother) whose stolen necklace has caused many of the difficulties arising during the play.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS

The Public Speaking Class of 1929 is under the supervision of Mrs. Milburn. Although very small in comparison with former classes, the work done this year has been of the highest quality.

Four members of the class took part in the County Contest held March 15. They were:

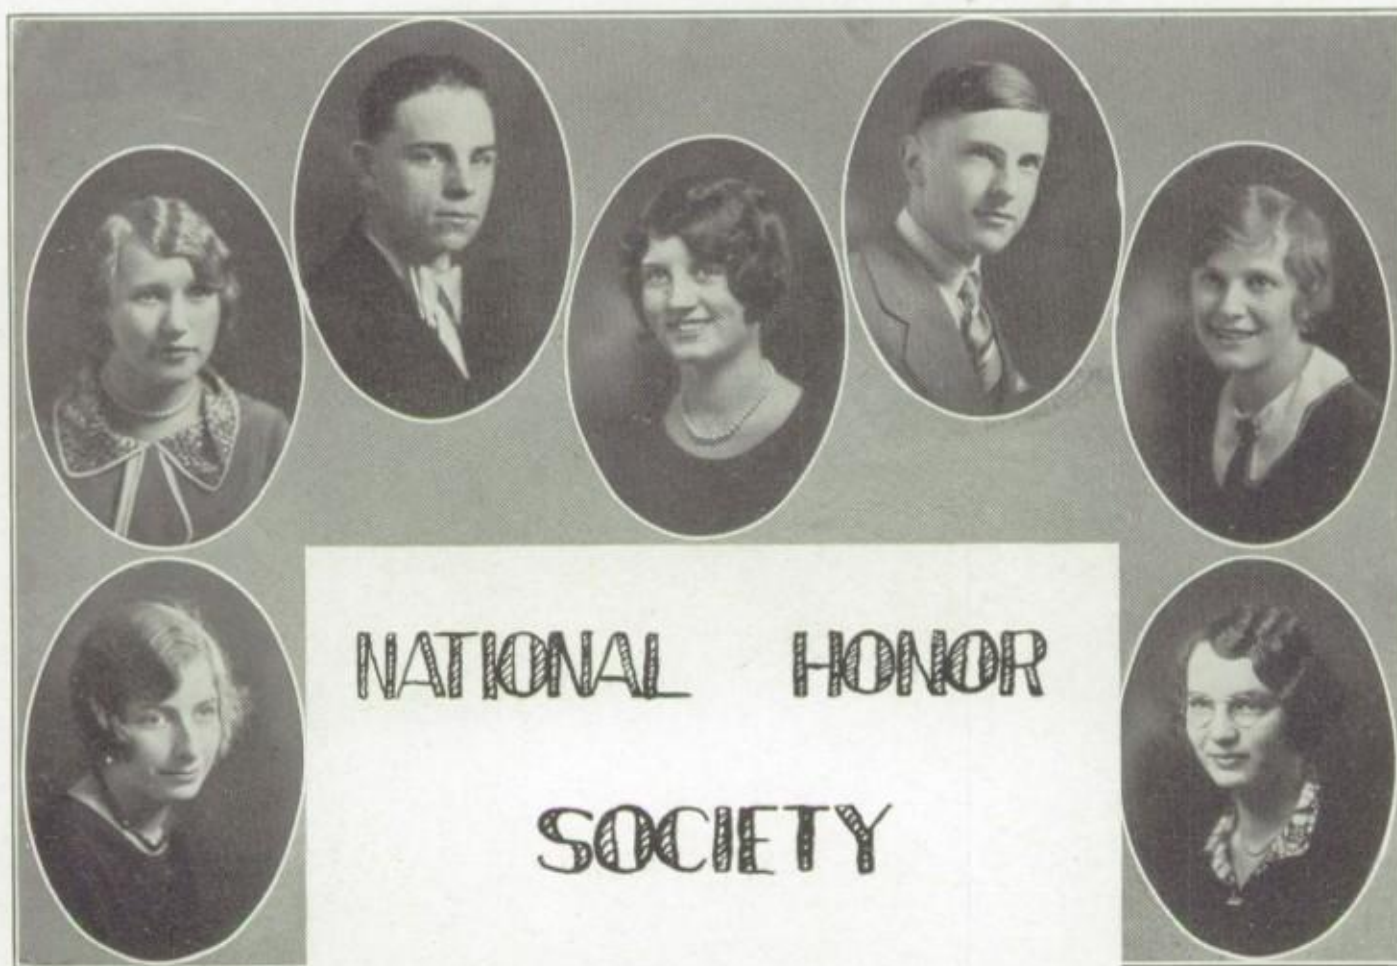

Wilma Farris, who read, Paul Bade, Cyril Munger and Roland Salder, all of whom orated.

A public speaking recital was presented in the spring by the class as it is a requirement to obtain credit to make a public appearance.

The class:

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Perrysburg chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1925. It is the purpose of this society to promote and encourage higher scholastic standards. It is a great honor to be a member of this society because it is not local but national in its scope and all schools which are members must conform to the high standards of the society. The faculty elects 15 per cent. of the Senior class to membership in the society. The election is based not only on scholarship but on leadership, character and participation in school activities as well. This year seven students from the Senior class were elected to the society. They were:

Elsie Metzger
Gordon Chappell
Bernice Hower

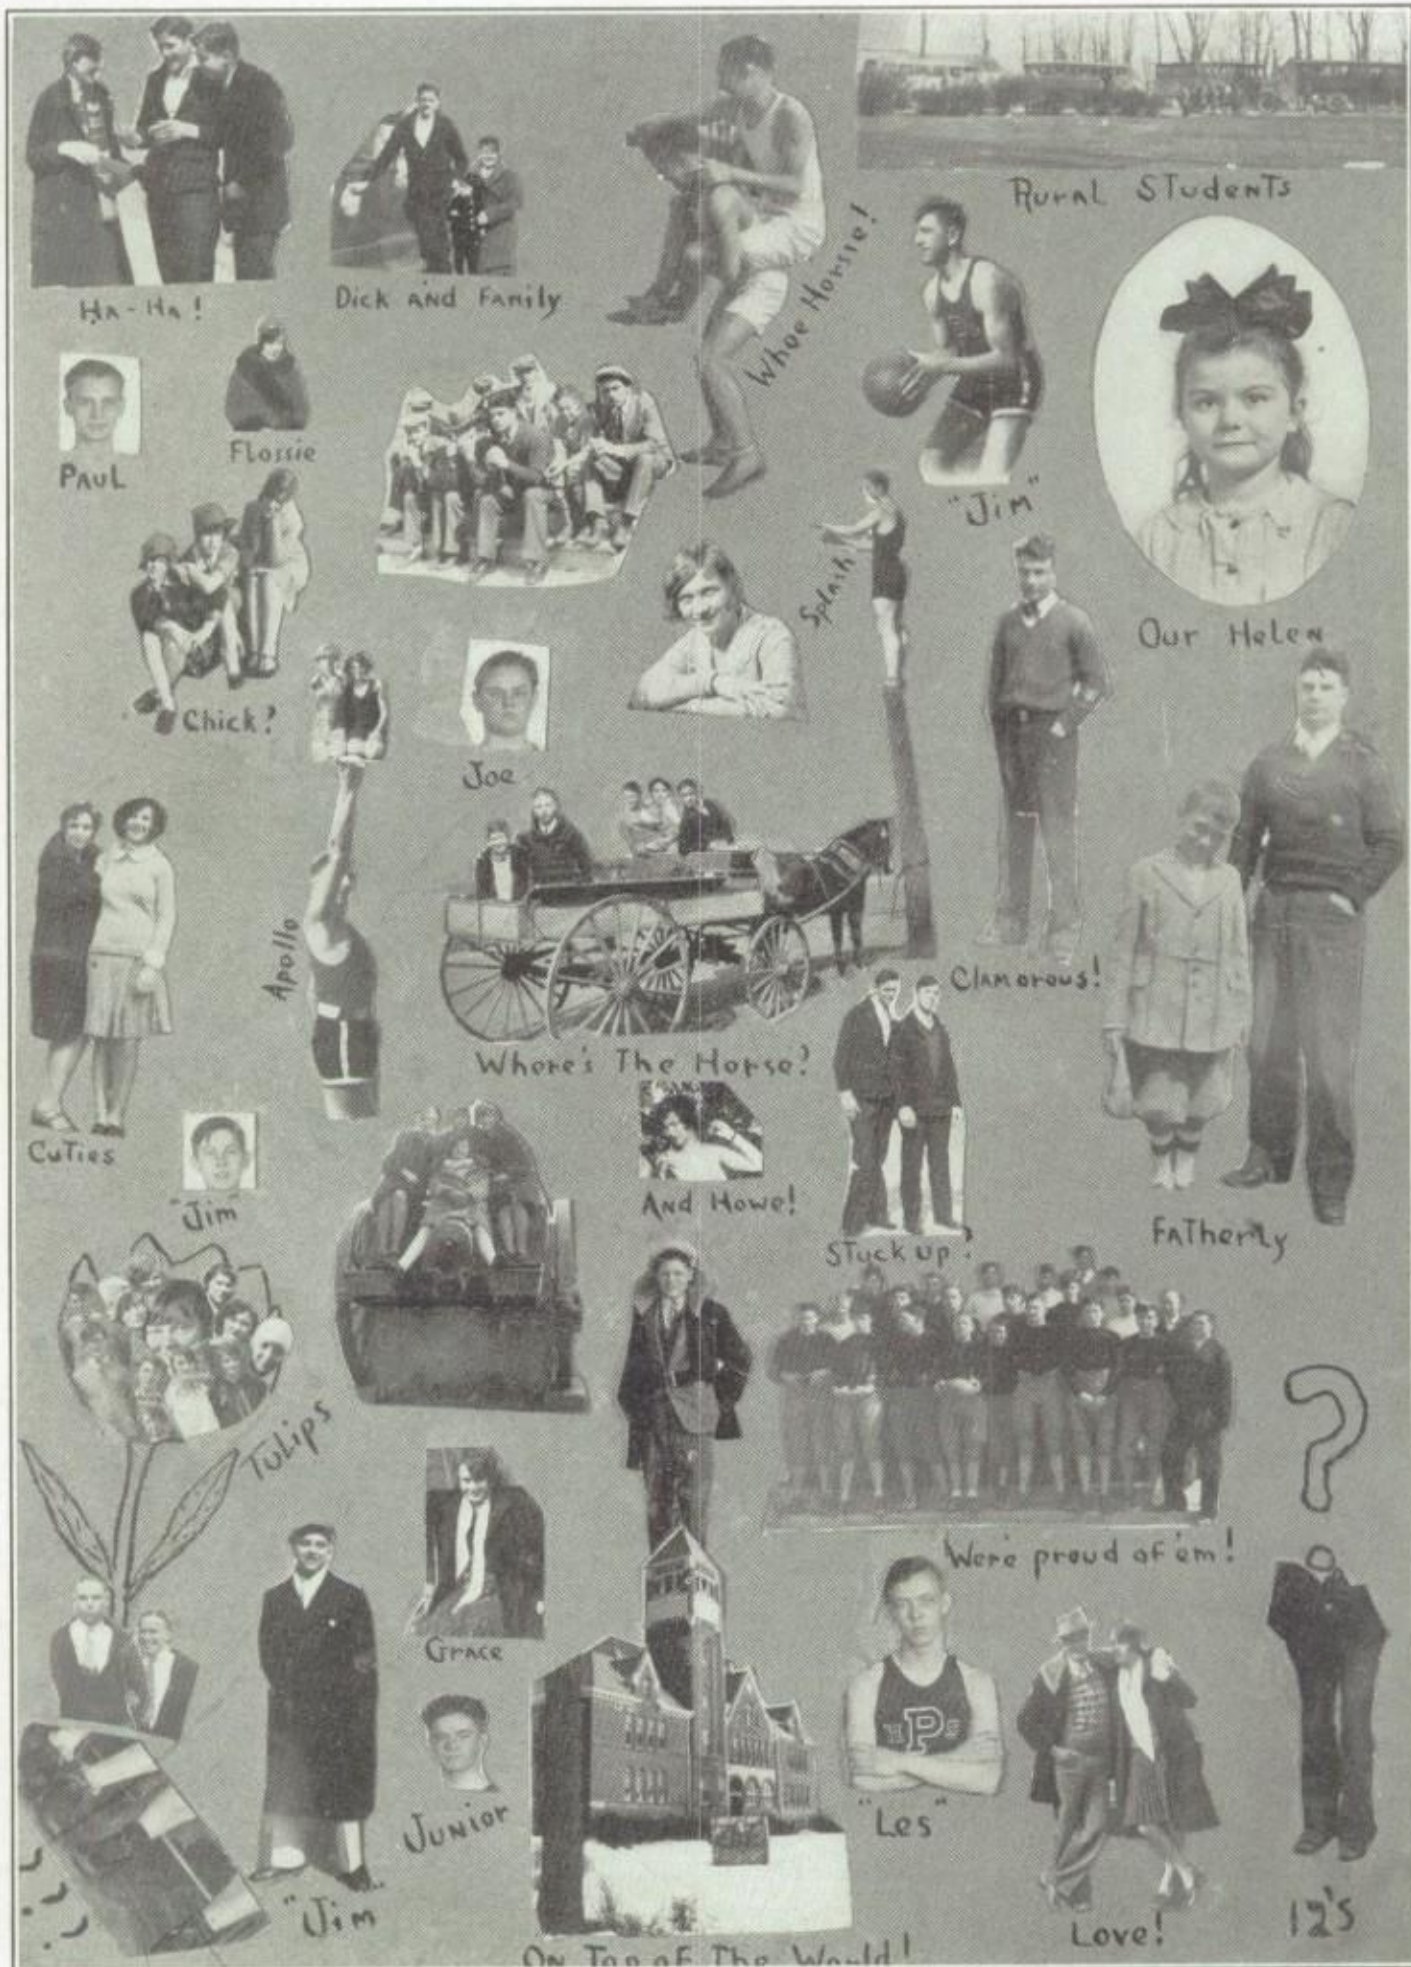

Rozella Spoerl
Freida Anderegg
George Haas

Charlotte Menke

Members of the '28 class were:

Lucille Kazmaier
Eloise Luebben
Jessie Nietz

Marjorie Milligan
Elizabeth Thornton
Richard Kruse

Coach WEINSTOCK: This is Mr. Weinstock's fourth year of successful athletics. We certainly appreciate the time and patience he has given. Although we have green material for next year we have confidence in the teams with Mr. Weinstock coaching.

Assistant Coach CANFIELD: 'Doc' has proven himself a very capable coach. His popularity with the boys gains him much respect and obedience that enables him to be of great value on the coaching staff. Doc says: "You haven't seen anything yet."

MR. TREECE: We cannot say enough to justify all that Mr. Treece has done for P. H. S. athletics. He is a real sport in his work and his play. We sure would hate to lose him.

BERT ROBISON: Full-back—"Greek."
 This was captain Robison's big year with P. H. S. Bert just couldn't be stopped with less than six tacklers, and they all felt his 180 pounds. Bert scored 76 points this year and he sure will be missed next season.

CLAYTON BOSTDORF: Quarter-back—"Dick." Dick is a clever boy at quarter with the real punch and spirit. The original triple threat man, he can kick, run and pass. We'll see big things from this boy next year when he again dons the colors for P. H. S.

GEORGE HAAS: Right half-back—"George." This was George's first and last year with P. H. S., and he certainly proved to be a real backfield man. When we needed ground we always knew George would gain. We hate to see you go, George, but our best wishes go with you.

ELMER BECK: Left half-back—"Elmer." Elmer's first year in the backfield was a very successful one. With his experience and added weight he'll be able to "Show 'em how" next year.

JAMES INMAN: End—"Jim." Jim although only a freshman, was a real end and all fight. Jim will be with us three more years. He promises to become one of our great athletes.

GILBERT GARBER: Tackle—"Dub." Gilbert is also a "cub" with the team. He is aggressive and dependable and he'll sure "strut his stuff" in his remaining years.

JOHN BENCH: Guard—"Johnnie." John was one of the "big boys" on the line this year. They never got far through John's position.

JOSEPH PROTSIK: Center—"Joe." Joe is one of those short heavy fellows that stay put like a concrete slab, and he sure could "spill" those center rushes. Joe receives his diploma this spring and he'll be missed when they call for centers.

HAROLD MOON: Guard—"Mooney." Mooney came nearly not getting a letter this year. He was injured twice. However, he made up in aggressiveness what he missed in quarters. He will be back for several more successful seasons.

PATRICK DOWLING: Tackle—"Pat." Pat was one of the biggest stones in the P. H. S. stone wall. With one more year we'll see some real football from him.

ARTHUR WILLIAMS: End—"Art." Art was a good tackler and a good pass receiver. It's too bad he can't stay with P. H. S. We are certain to miss him but graduation "will" take place.

RAY WOLF: Full-back—"Ray." Ray's first year on the regular squad proved he has all the ability and fight to "smash 'em up." We'll be glad to have Ray with us next year.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

This year about 35 more or less experienced boys reported for football practice. Considering the short time between the first practice and the first game, the showing made at Woodward was somewhat of an encouragement. They only beat us 12-0.

The next Friday we clambered aboard our bus and went to Montpelier from whence we came defeated by a score of 27-0, and one of our promising players injured quite badly.

However, a week later we took advantage of a light team and a game at our own field to win from Risingsun to the tune of 67-0.

Then came the game of which we are most proud. We journeyed to the Waite bowl and trounced their frisky Freshies by the score of 20-6. It was the only game that they lost this season, and they met some stiff opposition.

The next Friday, came Paulding to see what impressions they could make on our huskies. However, they hit a veritable stone wall and when they went home they carried a score of 38-0 defeat on their slim shoulders.

On the next week-end, one of our old enemies, Gibsonburg, came up to try our mettle. We didn't have to get up our temper however, for we set them down 58-0, with our second team in for a short time.

One week later Swanton sent her football representation to us for a little convention. In the slippery mud and falling rain we lost, 12-8.

The next week, Rossford came "up to our house." The boys must have gone off form for Rossford walloped us 27-0.

The following Saturday we were to end our reason, so we thought. We hopped over to Maumee, where, in the mud and rain we set them down 8-0.

Our suits were turned in and the season considered over, when the call came from Bradner, that we were expected to come down and play them. "Which we did." And we won 12-6. So endeth a successful season.

OUR NEW ATHLETIC FIELD

Our school board, realizing the need of a new athletic field, have purchased a four and one-half acre field on Seventh Street, near the Fremont Pike. The cost was $3600. Since purchasing, the field has been closely tilled, at the cost of our school board. The board has also spent about $150 for Kentucky Blue grass seed, which will be sown this spring; the field has already been plowed. The field will probably be fenced with strong six-foot fence. The cost of improvements will be about $2000.

A great deal of credit is due to the school board. This group of men, realizing the importance of athletics in school life, have very thoughtfully considered the necessity of an adequate athletic field; and the nicest part is that they have acted on their consideration.

The field will be ready for us either the fall of 1929 or 1930. In the future we sincerely hope that bleachers can be built, a baseball diamond laid out, field houses with shower rooms and lockers erected.

CHEER-LEADERS

A good basketball or football game depends a great deal on student support. We are sure that student support would not be worthy of any mention without cheerleaders. This year much credit is due the cheerleaders for their help in making our basketball and football squads a success.

BASEBALL

Baseball is P. H. S. youngest sport. Because of the short season no regular schedule has been played in past years, but this year a ten game schedule has been arranged.

The prospects of a winning team are quite good. Haas and Laine as pitchers and Inman as catcher will make up the battery; Laine first base; Protsik, second base; R. Wolf, third base; A. Mutchler, shortstop; Peterson, McCoy and Coble in outfield seem to be the best bet for the "first nine." Others that are out and may land places are Roberts, Goeke, Drain, Hillabrand, McCullough, Marriot, Chappell, Rader, Riggle, Mericle, Bernard and Turner.

BASKET BALL REVIEW

About forty boys reported at the first call for basketball candidates. Some of these dropped out before the end of the season, but with the residue Mr. Weinstock turned out a very good team.

Ray Wolfe turned out to be an excellent standing guard, and George Haas was found to be very handy at running guard. Three other men were experienced players. Near the middle of the season another valuable man, Leslie Laine came into our basketball squad.

Our first game with Tontogany, ended in a victory for P. H. S., score 27-18. The game was played here.

The second game was with the Alumni. We beat them 33-27.

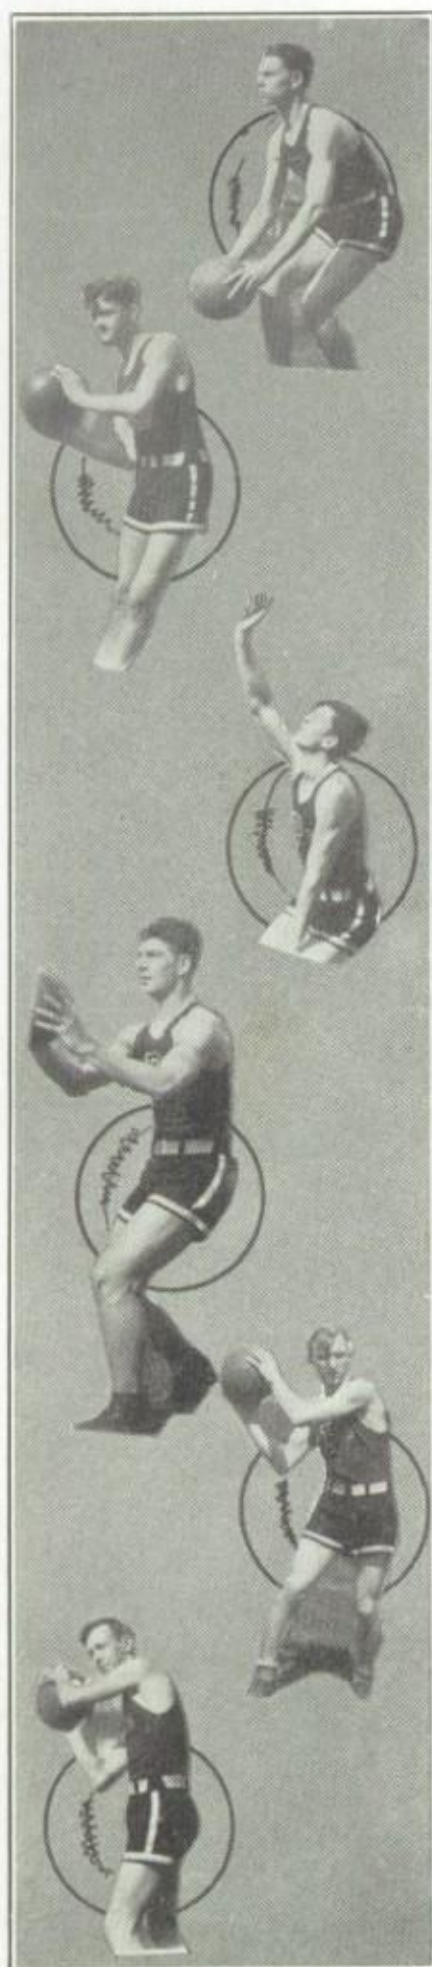

Then came the Toledo Marines. This team of experienced players could only score a one point lead on our boys. Score, 9-10.

The next game was with Wauseon, the score was 32-7.

The next two games were won by comfortable margins. The games were played with Tontogany and Bradner.

However, the next game was lost by one point, on our own floor, to Haskins. Then two more games won—one with the Alumni and one from Bradner. Then came the first game with Rossford, on our own floor. Sorry to say we lost 14-20.

A game with Monclova resulted in another loss—by one point. And then another defeat at the hands of Rossford. On February 29, 1929 we journeyed to Maumee to try conclusions with our dear neighbors. The boys must certainly have been away off form, for we suffered a defeat. The score was 27-19. At the tournament, the team played three games. The first was with Grand Rapids, which we lost by a score of 19-15. The second game was played with Tontogany. This game we won 28-14. The third game which was played with Haskins, we lost in an overtime period by a score of 21-19.

GEORGE HAAS: Captain—Guard. George was one of our most efficient "basketeters" this year. We could always depend on George for his best and his best was very good.

DICK BOSTDORF: Forward. Dick didn't really get going this year; he was laid up with a bad leg in the middle of the season. Dick is with us next year and we know he'll make up for lost time.

HENRY RICHARDS: Center. This is Hank's last year with P. H. S. and we are sorry he is leaving. Henry was our "long geared" center this year and "how?"

BERT ROBISON: Forward. "Corner" is the nickname and that's where he was dead on the "loops." We sure hate to see Bert go. He has been a fine all round athlete for P. H. S. Best wishes, Bert!

RAYMOND WOLFE: Guard. Ray's first year in the cage with P. H. S. proved he is a dependable man and will be a fast and clever boy in his years to come.

LESLIE LAINE: Forward. Les was a new comer with the team this year. We know he will be on the "first string" next year and going in fine shape. We can depend on you, can't we, Les?

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Classes in Physical Education are not always looked upon by High School boys with unbounded enthusiasm because so often Physical Culture becomes Physical "Torture" due to the boresome drills and calisthenics.

This year the accent in Boys Gymnasium work has been on supervised play. In the fall, as long as the weather permitted, games were played out of doors. When cold winds forced the classes back into the gymnasium basketball became the popular game with monotony defeated by occasional days of volley ball, floor games, exercises with medicine balls and dumb bells and tumbling instructions.

The middle of March brought the boys out of doors for play ground base ball. The game was popular because all could participate, everyone receiving a full share of exercise, fresh air and sunshine. On rainy days the gymnasium was used as in the winter.

At various times during the year talks were given by the instructor on such subjects as personal hygiene, care and prevention of colds, and first aid with drill in the last two by class members.

The Manual Arts Department has grown so rapidly during the last three years that it has been necessary to quadruple its accommodations. We now have forty-three enrolled in the department.

In behalf of the department we wish to thank the Board of Education for their interest in the department and for the equipment that they have furnished. The equipment includes a "14" power saw; "8" joiner; "20" band saw; two lathes; a grinder; and various saws and small tools. The boys take a keen interest in using the power tools.

An annual display of projects made in the department is held in one of the local stores and the public is invited to inspect the work done.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES

The girls gym classes were organized this year under the direction of Miss Harmon, the physical education instructor.

Owing to the large number of girls in the classes, they were divided into groups small enough to work in harmony. Many new drills, exercises and games were successfully introduced under Miss Harmon's capable and untiring direction.

Many of the girls went out for hockey this year under Miss Wiser's coaching. Inter-class games were played by the girls and many enjoyable hours spent on the field.

Many of the girls signed up for swimming. Miss Harmon and Miss Wiser chaperoned the classes once a week down to the Toledo Y. W. C. A. The girls entered the beginning and advanced classes according to their previous training.

On nice days the gym classes went on short hikes in place of the regular gym work.

We still have basketball for girls but only within our own walls, so that we can modify the rules of the game to suit the physical needs of our girls. In this way we can use twelve girls instead of six. We play our games on our own floor, thus omitting those long trips at night under unfavorable conditions.

The girls and the instructors agreed that a most successful year has just closed, and hope to come back to enjoy another year.

OCTOBER—Magazine Contest Party.

In the month of October a magazine contest was staged by the Crowell Publishing Company in our High School. The Reds were the winners and as their reward the Blues threw a party. After the fun, in which the teachers participated, doughnuts and cider were served. At a late hour the party broke up and everyone agreed that it was a success.

NOVEMBER—Senior Prom.

Blue and gray decorations, a good orchestra and a good dance floor, what more could you want? The Senior Prom was held in the Town Hall. The music was furnished by Leo Lake's orchestra. During the evening the floor was crowded with happy dancers to the tune of a marvelous orchestra. Late in the evening punch was served. At the usual time the party broke up with the playing of "Home, Sweet Home."

DECEMBER—Junior Party.

After having such a good time at the Senior party everyone looked forward very anxiously to the Juniors' Party which was the big event of December 23. at the Town Hall. Leo Lake's orchestra furnished the music until a late hour when everyone departed, with a "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

APRIL—Sophomore Party.

The Sophomore Class entertained their fellow students with a very delightful party. The hall was attractively decorated. Every one enjoyed dancing to the rhythmic beat of the peppy orchestra. At the usual hour the party broke up with the accustomed gay chatter and farewells.

WIT AND WISDOM

NOW that the last volume of Black and Gold for Nineteen Twenty-nine is bound and delivered, the last form killed and the presses washed up ready for the next job, we pause a moment for retrospection.

It has been a real pleasure for us to collaborate with the staff in producing this edition. We have endeavored to grasp and interpret the spirit of the student body represented, so that this volume may prove a treasure chest of memories to you in years to come.

And during the course of your business or professional career when advertising or printing problems arise, we hope The Gray Printing Company may continue to serve you.

Mr. Milburn—Reading a note saying that if he didn't leave $1000 in an old stump by the creek, his wife would be kidnapped.

Mr. Milburn wrote back yesterday saying—that he was broke,
but he is very much interested in the proposition.

Mr. Huffman (at beginning of new term)—I have you all paired off for the desks.

WE MUST VISION FOR TOMORROW

The men who make the big successes of this world are men who govern each day's acts by the vision of "tomorrow." Large or small we can all follow the plan.

To establish your credit, to provide a good foundation on which to build for tomorrow, an account at this bank started now will help tremendously.

Bill—Then shoot quick—it hurts my face.
